32 07/08/2025 8:37 AM ID: 277408721					No great selection, including a good choice of smaller/cheaper items which is a lovely consideration given how expensive it can be with multiple children. Also the pricing of the little mice was very reasonable, given the focus on finding mice the entire way round, you could have (and most other attractions would have) really gouged the profit margin on those, so it was a really pleasant surprise.

2	16/06/2025 8:18 PM ID: 273343505	It was truly fascinating. All staff/volunteers were lovely & very helpful
3	16/06/2025 9:37 PM ID: 273347677	Lots of very interesting information well displayed and Weymouth's and Nothe Fort's part in WW11 very clear. Great exhibition. Really enjoyed afternoon in the Fort.
4	18/06/2025 8:39 AM ID: 273443067	A great place to visit, so informative and interesting. It was great being able to access all areas with the dog. Really well laid out and maintained. I would highly recommend this place.
5	18/06/2025 12:23 PM ID: 273462466	Loved it!
6	18/06/2025 5:16 PM ID: 273488671	Absolutely fantastic. I've come here almost every year since I was born (2000). I love your D-Day exhibit - especially the way you have amplified marginal stories of women and Black people. All the staff were incredible friendly and helpful. I love the amount of dog bowls you have now (and all the signs!). The only thing I would ask is for you to have more vegan options in the cafe - but all of the lunch tables for us to bring a packed lunch were amazing (and the vegan flapjack you had was delicious!)
7	19/06/2025 12:47 PM ID: 273531887	Staff were lovely and welcoming. A very knowledgeable gentleman discussed the best way to go round, with us. We unfortunately ran out of time so we're hoping to re-visit before we go home.
8	19/06/2025 6:52 PM ID: 273559092	An interesting and informative visit. As I was visiting with friends who are visiting me it was nice to have photo opportunities, like the dress up sections, and sitting on a bike or a gun. The Nothe had a very calm feeling to it and the views were outstanding, of course the weather was an added bonus
9	21/06/2025 4:56 PM ID: 273648652	The staff were friendly & helpful, the range of products in the shop was fantastic & my children can't wait to visit again
10	22/06/2025 12:56 PM ID: 273667232	Shame there is no price for a family of three. That's much more common than it was and it's more expensive for us to book individually and feels unfair that the family of 4 get a discount but we don't.
11	23/06/2025 2:06 PM ID: 273717009	Our visit was the high light of the day the children lived all the quizzes especially finding the mice and the little booklet. Everything was very well labelled and the staff were very knowledgeable and helpful.
12	23/06/2025 2:16 PM ID: 273718212	We were really impressed 26th the gluten free menu at the cafe and the mouse hunt. The building is incredible and such a fun resource to the past.
13	23/06/2025 7:56 PM ID: 273749690	We thoroughly enjoyed our visit. The front desk staff were super friendly and informative. Other volunteers were also very helpful and friendly. The exhibits were superb and in pretty good condition. Only one small point, the larger exhibits had lots of cobwebs on them but that didn't stop the enjoyment of seeing the actual exhibits. Top marks all round to the Volunteers, exhibits and such interesting facts and information.
14	25/06/2025 12:39 PM ID: 273925033	The visit and overall fort were quite fantastic. I would have loved to have had a further tour guide type option with more local stories or unique tidbits — even if only for some parts of the fort and museum. I'm sure there are loads of stories and historical facts that could be used.
15	26/06/2025 8:56 AM ID: 273982102	Absolutely brilliant museum!!
16	26/06/2025 9:12 AM ID: 273983213	As a retired teacher I was very impressed by the whole site, and how its displays were relevant for children as well as adults.
17	26/06/2025 2:05 PM ID: 274009742	I remember the military vehicles which are no longer, Shame as its an interest to a whole varied age group, seeing cafe & staff apartment take up all the inner courtyard up. + you could put up dummy soldiers on parade & more through exhibits (like madame tussauds). & another put another gun impeachment on the sea facing wall.

23	29/06/2025 8:20 PM ID: 274161728	We come regularly with our annual pass today some rooms were open that aren't usual, which was brilliant and very exciting for my 2.5 year old grandson, he also thoroughly enjoyed painting the fossils and fossils search, I can't praise the Nothe Fort enough we always have a great time be it a normal day or special event, it's so well organised, staff are amazing and the cafe is brilliant we always use it when we are there. The whole place is a 10/10 from us and will definitely be renewing our pass.

30	07/07/2025 7:41 PM ID: 274758986	It was far better than I had hoped it would be. I thought an hours visit but we were there over 3 hours. Really fantastic
31	07/07/2025 10:19 PM ID: 274766337	Thought it was great, loved the mice trail. Very engaging for everyone. Cream Tea was superb and very well priced. Annual pass a hit with the locals in the group who will return as they found it to much to do in one day. Thought it was really thoughtfully laid out. Liked the before and after photos. An improvement would be to have an information notice at the guns. Overall, was very impressed and had a lovely visit, only had to leave as the 4 hours we had paid for was expiring.
32	09/07/2025 7:46 AM ID: 274898120	Really enjoyed the visit, so much to take in and the views are stunning. Looking at the future events lots on and a great venue. Really recommend a visit, good value for money.
33	09/07/2025 1:56 PM ID: 274932373	I wanted to give this feedback purely because I want to commend the young man called Zac who works in the cafe. His pleasant attitude , helpfulness and smile is a credit to Nothe Fort. Although all the staff and volunteers are friendly and efficient, Zac has that extra bit about him. Well done!
34	09/07/2025 5:03 PM ID: 274951204	John was a very helpful & knowledgeable guide. He made the visit special

46	16/07/2025 1:50 PM ID: 275392940	A wonderful visit, and a credit to every volunteer
47	17/07/2025 11:40 AM ID: 275467279	Loved it! More seats around the edges, not just at the cafe, would really help. We came to spend several hours and the seats that are there were often taken. The only place to sit was watching the video on loading the huge cannons.
48	18/07/2025 1:27 PM ID: 275559884	Very fun visit, great for the family 🥰
49	20/07/2025 10:12 AM ID: 275624661	A very enjoyable visit. Was going to sit in gardens while husband visited fort. However after speaking to staff member and told about accessibility I went in and was blown away.. I missed nothing. Lift, ramps . Friendly staff, amazing cafe. Thank you.

53	23/07/2025 2:19 PM ID: 276161620	Staff faultlessly friendly, informative and fun. Thoroughly enjoyable visit would recommend to all age groups.
54	23/07/2025 4:12 PM ID: 276183961	Volunteers were absolutely incredible, really knowledgeable and engaging for adults & children. Dog friendly. Been to weymouth every year for numerous years, but our first visit to the fort. Can't believe we haven't visited before! Will be returning with the grandparents next year x
55	23/07/2025 7:45 PM ID: 276209646	Fantastic place to visit..we spent 3 hours looking round, 2 grandparents, mum and dad and 2 under 5's who didn't moan about being bored! We first came to visit when our children were little, and they also enjoyed searching for the mice..(I think they've multiplied over the years!) Please continue this activity , the staff also were so very informative, the gentleman volunteer who explained which route to go was lovely...he told the children to make sure they shouted loudly in the water tank..they didn't forget! He also told them to follow the ghost passage, the volunteers do a brilliant job! And the annual pass is a bonus..hopefully our holiday in Weymouth next year will fall within the time frame...thankyou all for doing such a great job!
56	24/07/2025 3:30 PM ID: 276314145	I definitely want to come back

58	26/07/2025 4:07 PM ID: 276666926	I'm looking forward to returning next year. The annual pass is a great idea and we visited twice during our holiday. It allowed us the freedom to thoroughly explore and examine all that the Fort has to offer. We look forward to seeing other parts of the Fort, as and when they are ready for the viewing public.
59	27/07/2025 2:16 PM ID: 276741649	My son loved it
60	27/07/2025 3:47 PM ID: 276746334	We loved it. Fabulous exhibits and memorabilia. We liked the ghost passage and nuclear bunker. Plenty of space for a picnic outside. The staff were great. Very helpful in guiding us to the best place to start the tour. Well worth the visit. We'll come again.
61	27/07/2025 5:20 PM ID: 276750773	It's a fantastic place and, I'll sure be coming back
62	29/07/2025 9:49 AM ID: 276859055	Ladies in the cafe were amazing and prepared me a salad (as I don't tend to eat most of the items on the menu). It was delicious as was the cake (which I did manage!!!) thank you
63	29/07/2025 3:49 PM ID: 276888112	Thank you for a lovely family day out for us all today. It's amazing how you allow puppies/dogs as there part of people's family's too and they obviously should be included.
64	29/07/2025 4:00 PM ID: 276888914	We visited as it was going to be a rainy day, but we had a LOVELY day, very informative, lots of interactive displays...Nothe Fort was a real (and unexpected) surprise!! Our large group of mixed ages (4-70) was well engaged for at least 3 hours. Parking was easy too.
65	30/07/2025 12:26 PM ID: 276947321	I really enjoyed the visit and will definitely visit again
66	31/07/2025 7:54 AM ID: 277005391	Exceeded our expectations. Wonderful volunteers. Very clean toilets. Great balance between displays and descriptions. Great day out for kids of all ages.

74	03/08/2025 6:30 PM ID: 277198536	We absolutely loved it. Marion, I hope Ive remembered her name correctly, was so warm and welcoming and knowledgeable and Paul in the shop was so friendly. The building was amazing and we learnt so much, loved how you've also included the stories of the community who reclaimed it as their own when it was derelict. Will absolutely be recommending Nothe Fort. Thank you for a great day and for protecting this piece of history.
75	03/08/2025 8:25 PM ID: 277201535	I couldn't be any happier with our experience at Nothe Fort. The assistants were brilliant, the activities were brilliant, everything was to a very good standard and my son had to quote 'one of the best days of his life'. I can't fault anything, a few of the products were missing pricing in the shop but that's all I could critique, and this was a non issue. I would recommend this place to anyone and a massive thank you to all the volunteers that made our experience what is was! Brilliant museum and brilliant team.
76	04/08/2025 1:07 PM ID: 277231776	Deserves to be a top visitor attraction for the south. Facilities and displays are excellent. Could do with bus to the car park.
77	04/08/2025 1:36 PM ID: 277234141	Love coming here, have been visiting since I was a child and now bring my children who look forward to it every year
78	05/08/2025 6:31 PM ID: 277309346	Very friendly and welcoming staff. Plenty to see from several periods of history, well presented to engage all age groups.
79	06/08/2025 6:26 PM ID: 277389557	We enjoyed our visit very much
80	07/08/2025 8:37 AM ID: 277408721	I visit a lot of farms, zoos, parks, attractions etc with the kids. Nothe Fort is the cleanest, best thought out, most surprisingly large location I have visited in the last 3 years, and it also had the most passionate volunteers I can remember. The standard of presentation and cleanliness throughout was very impressive, the paintwork was neat and fresh, there was ZERO litter, and most notably the toilets (despite huge visitor numbers) were clean and fresh smelling throughout the entire 5 hour visit. Also the gravel in the main courtyard was inexplicably neat and not spread everywhere and yet I never once saw anyone sweeping it, no idea how you managed that. The addition of wasp traps beside the eating area was a lovely consideration. The mouse hunt was a really lovely and engaging addition the the fort, the children loved it and the mice were in a good variety of locations. I have mentioned it already but it's very important to me that your gift shop was reasonably priced, like most parents I live in dread at the thought of the gift shop at the end of a visit, I bought two necklaces, a fridge magnet and two mice and was chuffed with the prices, (please don't read this feedback and think "great we can raise the prices a little", the reasonable prices were a big factor for me being so satisfied with our visit). I have a few bits of information that may help you improve: 1. the door knobs on top of the smelling boxes could be glued on to prevent children unscrewing them. 2. The binoculars box in the viewing room has come loose from the wall. 3. A camera in the rooms with any dress up stuff would discourage theft, there were a few dress up locations where it appeared that some items were lacking because they might have been stolen previously. 4. The route around the basement was the least clear, perhaps consider walking it and adding a few

90	11/08/2025 9:26 PM ID: 277642014	Our visit to Nothe Fort was one of complete joy. Coming from West London, there are very few museums that have kept original rooms, equipment and interactions since Covid. I was thrilled that I got to show my 11 year old how things really were during the World Wars. Nothe Fort really allowed us to step back in time and experience these things rather than just reading a board and looking at a picture. It is little things like being able to see how houses were styled and the household equipment they had, as well as what the shops and schools were like that make the experience more interactive. Nothe Fort was definitely one of the highlights of our holiday and we will be visiting again in the future. Thank you to all the amazing staff (both paid and volunteers) at Nothe Fort.
91	12/08/2025 6:57 PM ID: 277704965	Best coffee I've had in years was from nothe fort cafe, staff were very friendly, atmosphere was very pleasant, views from the fort are perfect.
92	13/08/2025 11:14 AM ID: 277742479	ban dogs! Guide and assistance dogs fine but people bringing the pets in unacceptable. Especially in the tunnels where they bark, urinate and stress other children and families out. I love the Nothe Fort but you have to get this right for the benefit of all. BAN DOGS.

136	06/09/2025 10:20 AM ID: 279652141	An absolutely brilliant experience that takes you on a journey of the history of the original Victorian fort through two World Wars and then the Cold War, when part of the fort was used as a Nuclear Bunker. The films and exhibits are superb and the D-Day exhibition, which highlights the role of Weymouth in the D-Day landings and Operation Overlord, is outstanding. There are also amazing views across Weymouth, the Jurassic Coast and Portland. There's a great little café too! It's well worth the entrance fee!
137	08/09/2025 7:12 PM ID: 279767809	Everything was excellent and very interesting. There was a lot to see. The volunteers were great with the information they shared. A great visit

139	10/09/2025 10:59 PM ID: 279950638	My auntie and I had the most amazing time today at Nothe Fort, the staff were extremely polite and helpful, particularly Garth who met us at my car with a wheelchair for my auntie Marion who is 98. I cannot rate Nothe Fort anything but fabulous, I learnt such a lot and auntie Marion has a lot of interesting real life memories of WW2 in the area, she found it absolutely wonderful. Marion had never been before even though she has lived in Wyke Regis since 1937 and I will certainly be bringing her again!. I live 200 miles away so only manage to get down every 4 weeks, but it has been one of the best days we have spent together. Having access to the wheel chair was a massive help and we spent over 2 hours in the bunker area, Marion even knew one of the ladies (Poppy) listening through the speaker/ear piece in one of the magazine rooms. We would like to thank you all so much for the amazing experience we had.

149	17/09/2025 6:31 PM ID: 280513656	It's such a shame that that the amnesty exhibition was only temporary. It's part of the history of the fort and I think it should be permanent.
